HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Frontier livestock judging team on its victory at the Southeastern National Livestock Judging Contest.

Whereas, Participation on a livestock judging team gives young people the opportunity to learn the skill of livestock evaluation and to express their opinions through oral presentation;

Whereas, Livestock judging team members learn to apply scientific principles of animal growth, evaluation, and selection to different types of animals and to analyze breeding and market classes of beef cattle, swine, and sheep;

Whereas, Livestock judging competitions are held throughout the United States, challenge the team members, and determine the knowledge and communication skills that the team members have obtained;

Whereas, There are three levels in livestock judging competitions - area, state, and national;

Whereas, Under the direction of John Culver, the Frontier judging team worked diligently;

Whereas, The team placed first in the area competition with Courtney Wesner finishing first, Carly Wesner finishing third, Jake Sullivan finishing fourth, and Bailey Wesner finishing ninth;

Whereas, In order to advance to the national competition, a team must be one of the top six teams in the state competition, and the Frontier judging team finished fifth;

Whereas, The team members' hard work and dedication paid off when they were victorious at the Southeastern National Livestock Judging Contest in Raleigh, North Carolina;

Whereas, The team placed first overall, first in the sheep division, first in the beef division, second in the swine division, and first in oral reasons;

Whereas, In addition to the team's accomplishment, Courtney Wesner was high individual, first in oral reasons, first in the swine division, and first in the beef division; Carly Wesner placed fourth overall individually, sixth in oral reasons, seventh in the swine division, and third in the beef division; and Bailey Wesner placed sixth in the beef division; and

Whereas, When it comes to preparing future leaders for agriculture and the livestock industry, few forms of educational training can compare with the experience that these young people have gained from participating on the judging team: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the
